SUMMARY: WVSOM is seeking to fill a full-time tenure track position in osteopathic principles and practices (OPP) medicine. The primary job of this faculty position is to provide education in osteopathic principles and practices and assist in providing OPP integration to all phases of the WVSOM predoctoral and postdoctoral curriculum. Research or scholarly activity opportunities are available. Successful candidates must have a D.O. degree from an accredited college/school of osteopathic medicine and be residency-trained and board-certified or board-eligible by AOBNMM (CSPOMM and/or NMM). The successful candidate must also be eligible for licensure in West Virginia.

RESPONSIBILITIES: OPP department duties include ONMM resident supervision in hospital and out-patient clinic with a willingness to advance into ONMM residency administration, and participation in the curricular duties of the OPP faculty in training/teaching all years of osteopathic medical students. Academic responsibilities may include preparing and delivering lectures, instruction in OPP labs, development of test questions and small-group activities.

BENEFITS: Salary and faculty rank will be commensurate with experience, and the position includes an excellent benefits package including medical malpractice insurance, educational loan reimbursement and relocation expenses.

Recognized as a “Great College to Work For” by The Chronicle of Higher Education, WVSOM is a free-standing medical school nestled in the Allegheny Mountains. Located in “America’s Coolest Small Town,” WVSOM is just minutes from the famed Greenbrier Resort, an AAA Five Diamond hotel and spa and host of an annual PGA golf tournament. WVSOM brings more than 40 years of history serving the health and wellness needs of the Greenbrier Valley, the state of West Virginia and beyond. The school’s small-town, rural community cherishes its connection with the college, and our students are engaged in service outreach and support for more than 40 nonprofit organizations in the area. This one-of-a-kind environment brings together farmers and artists, lumbermen and world-renowned musicians, holistic physicians and thrill-seeking whitewater rafters in a diverse melting pot that is truly unique.

APPLICATIONS: OPP department duties include ONMM resident supervision in hospital and out-patient clinic with a willingness to advance into ONMM residency administration, and participation in the curricular duties of the OPP faculty in training/teaching all years of osteopathic medical students. Academic responsibilities may include preparing and delivering lectures, instruction in OPP labs, development of test questions and small-group activities.

BENEFITS: Salary and faculty rank will be commensurate with experience, and the position includes an excellent benefits package including medical malpractice insurance, educational loan reimbursement and relocation expenses.

Recognized as a “Great College to Work For” by The Chronicle of Higher Education, WVSOM is a free-standing medical school nestled in the Allegheny Mountains. Located in “America’s Coolest Small Town,” WVSOM is just minutes from the famed Greenbrier Resort, an AAA Five Diamond hotel and spa and host of an annual PGA golf tournament. WVSOM brings more than 40 years of history serving the health and wellness needs of the Greenbrier Valley, the state of West Virginia and beyond. The school’s small-town, rural community cherishes its connection with the college, and our students are engaged in service outreach and support for more than 40 nonprofit organizations in the area. This one-of-a-kind environment brings together farmers and artists, lumbermen and world-renowned musicians, holistic physicians and thrill-seeking whitewater rafters in a diverse melting pot that is truly unique.

APPLY

Applications accepted until position is filled. WVSOM is an AA/EO employer.

Contact: Leslie Bicksler
Vice President of Human Resources
lbicksler@osteo.wvsom.edu
304.647.6279

WVSOM.edu/employment